POMPEII AND HERCULANEUM

Pompeii and Herculaneum are the largest towns of the five buried by the Vesuvian eruption of 79 AD. They are also the most fully excavated, although they were buried by the same eruption. Pompeii was covered mainly by ash, and Herculaneum by mud and lava; it is interesting to compare building techniques and lifestyles walking round the sites, as Pompeii lived thanks to commerce. Whereas Herculaneum was a fishing community, but by the first century it was becoming a fashionable holiday resort. Both towns were discovered and excavated mid-18th century. About 75% of Pompeii has now been excavated, compared to 25% of Herculaneum, where the new town has been built over the archaeological site. There is free time lunch between the two visits, and return to Sorrento is in the late afternoon.

INCLUDED IN YOUR DAY:

- Pick up from your hotel and travel by bus with air conditioning
- Guided tour of Pompeii (about 2 hrs) and Herculaneum (about 2 hours) with an official guide
