POMPEII AND HERCULANEUM – skip the line – lunch included

Pompeii and Herculaneum are the largest towns of the five buried by the Vesuvian eruption of 79 A.D. They are also the most fully excavated, although they were buried by the same eruption. Pompeii was covered mainly by ash, and Herculaneum by mud and lava; it is interesting to compare building techniques and lifestyles walking round the sites. Both towns were discovered and excavated mid-18th century. About 75% of Pompeii has now been excavated, compared to 25% of Herculaneum, where the new town has been built over the archaeological site.
